Quarterly Mentoring Roundtable
Focuses on Mentors

Join the Volunteer Center for Anne Arundel County on Wednesday, July 28 for our third quarterly mentoring roundtable meeting for 2010. The roundtable meeting will be held from 5:00 – 7:30pm at the “Pip” Moyer Recreation Center at Truxton Park. Our guest presenters are Dr. Clara Giles Carter, Maryland Mentoring Partnership and Dr. Charles Christian, author, Black Saga. This roundtable meeting is held in partnership with the City of Annapolis and the Housing Authority of the City of Annapolis.

Everyone is welcome and there is no fee to attend. Because refreshments will be served, we ask that you RSVP to Janice Janice@volunteerannearundel.org, or Fay at fay@volunteerannearundel.org, or call us at 410-897-9207.

The mission of the Anne Arundel Mentoring Roundtable is to increase the number of Anne Arundel County youth (this includes Annapolis) in quality mentoring relationships with wise, trustworthy, and caring adults for the purpose of enhancing career options, raising self-esteem, empowering youth toward self-sufficiency, and increasing literacy.

The Roundtable is housed at the Volunteer Center for Anne Arundel County and brings together individuals and organizations interested in youth mentoring. It encourages organizations to share best practices and resources, recognizes quality mentoring programs through the annual “Mentor of the Year” program, and offers training in areas related to mentoring.

For additional information about the Mentoring Roundtable, go to www.volunteerannearundel.org/roundtable.html. The street address for the “Pip” Moyer Recreation Center is 273 Hilltop Lane, Annapolis, Maryland 21403.
